

REVELATION 10

INTRODUCTION: This chapter falls between the sounding of the sixth and seventh trumpet. We call it a divine _____. The seventh trumpet introduces the _____ of the wrath of God and the _____ half of the _____ follows.

I: THE APPEARANCE OF THE ANGEL (1-4)

1. Jesus Himself? Many _____ believe so.
 - a) The description in verse one takes us back to chapter 1:12-16
 - b) Compare – Genesis 18:1 – Abraham’s response to angelic visitors (v. 13)
Hebrews 7 and Genesis 14 – The mysterious Melchizedek
Matthew 28:18 – “All power ... in _____ and in _____”
 - c) Manner of coming – “...down from _____, clothed with a _____.”
 - d) Made an _____ in verse six (significant)

II: THE ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE ANGEL (5-7)

1. Two significant statements
 - a) “ _____ ” (v. 6)
 - b) “the _____ of _____” (v. 7)
2. One significant truth ... God is in _____ of _____ and will ultimately see to it that _____ triumphs over _____.

III: THE APPROPRIATION OF THE BOOK (8-11)

1. The two-fold effect of the book ...
 - a) Sweet to his _____ (10). See Psalm 119:103 and Psalm 19:10. We enjoy the _____ of the _____.
 - b) Bitter in his _____ (10). See Isaiah 6:1-5 and Hebrews 4:12. We also feel the _____ of the _____.

CONCLUSION: Verse 11 indicates that John would _____ to many _____ and _____. The _____ of the world are referred to often in the _____ of Revelation. Satan will be _____ them up and getting them _____ for Armageddon (16:12-14).